	2010 Michigan Baseball
	Rich Maloney Head Coach 8th Season

Michigan head coach Rich Maloney (Western Michigan '86) was named Big Ten Coach of the Year this season after winning back-to-back Big Ten championships in 2006 and 2007. The Wolverines (42-17), making their 20th appearance in the NCAA Tournament, earned their first-ever trip to the Super Regional level of the national tournament by winning the NCAA Nashville Regional that included two wins by identical 4-3 scores in last at bat situations against No. 1-ranked Vanderbilt. The host Commodores entered the 64-team tournament as the top seed. It marks the first back-to-back-to-back NCAA appearances since U-M reached seven straight years from 1983-1989. Coach Maloney enters his seventh season as head baseball coach at the University of Michigan in 2008 after leading the Wolverines to a pair of Big Ten championships in 2007 winning the regular season crown and the Big Ten Tournament championship that included the automatic NCAA tournament berth.

Testimonials:      "I think Coach Maloney's baseball camps not only teach you skills and techniques of baseball. They also teach you good sportsmanship, leadership, a positive team attitude and, most of all, fun!"    -Andrew B. Nazzaro-Cole
